Miss Grace Irvine of Tollesboro is visiting friends at Washington.

Something better than ordinary are "Daisy" Hams. M. C. RUSSELL CO.

Charles Bickley, a few years since a well known resident of Washington, died of heart trouble yesterday in Campbell county.

The young friends entertained with cards at the home of Mrs. Amelia Johnson in honor of Prof. C. W. Reynolds. Light refreshments were served and a pleasant evening was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Lee Rouark of Mill Creek was quite badly hurt yesterday in a runaway accident near Washington. She was accompanied by a small child, which escaped unhurt. Mrs. Rouark sustained her injuries by being dragged some distance.

Joseph Robinson, colored, aged 77, died this morning at 4:30 at his home, 31 East Second street. He leaves one daughter, Mrs. Frank Brady and one son, Walter, of Cincinnati. The funeral will be under the auspices of Star Lodge, 1,948, I. O. O. F., and will take place from Scott's Chapel Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. P. J. Gorman officiating. Interment in Maysville Cemetery.

Mr. L. F. Alexander and Mrs. Lou Carter, daughter of Dr. J. M. Waldeck, both of Hill Top, Fleming county, were married last night in the parlors of the Denison Hotel, Cincinnati, Rev. Gervase Roughton officiating. They were accompanied by Mr. Forest Waldeck, Miss Candy Waldeck and Miss Anna Alexander. Taken altogether they were a handsome set of people, especially the ladies. They passed through here this morning on their return home.

Our line of Cut Glass and Sterling Silver goods are not to be compared to any other line in "this city." We are showing a "larger stock" than can be found in any "store" in "cities" "twice" the "size" of Maysville. We have reduced prices until now you can buy a handsome piece of Cut Glass for the price you paid for cheap cutting. Let me show you.

P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

SAFFORD—FINNELL.

At high noon yesterday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Means in Market street, occurred the marriage of their niece, Miss Elizabeth Wall Finnell, to Mr. Homer Safford of Chillicothe, O.

The ceremony was Episcopal, and the wedding guests included the families of the contracting parties and a few intimate friends.

The home decorations for the nuptials were especially striking and beautiful.

The mantel in the parlor was bunched with pink peonies from floor to ceiling; bunches of pink roses and fern were suspended from the chandelier and the stairway from which the bride tossed her roses was covered with asparagus and syringa. Miss Johnson played the Wedding March and caught the bride's bouquet.

Promptly at high noon, the bride entered the parlor of the arm of her uncle, Mr. Means, preceded by her Maid of Honor, Miss Matthews of New York.

They were met in front of the bank of flowers by Rev. M. B. Adams of Frankfort, Mr. Safford, and Mr. Lindley of Chicago, who was best man.

The bridal party thus grouped, with the background of flowers, made an exceedingly pretty picture as the ceremony was being pronounced.

After congratulations, refreshments were served in the handsome dining-room. The decorations here were pink and white roses, pink and white candles in the candelabra of the bride's great-grandmother.

Miss Finnell's gown was handsome in its simplicity of clinging white silk and Valenciennes lace. The going away gown was a tailored suit of tan cloth.

Mr. and Mrs. Safford, with Miss Matthews and Mr. Lindley, left on the 3:25 train for Cincinnati. The bride and groom will spend their honeymoon on the lakes.

Noticeable among the handsome wedding guests out of town were Miss Safford and Miss Louise Safford, sisters of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Adams, Mr. Neal and Mr. Staats of Cleveland.

"There Isn't One Really Good Printer in Five Hundred."

Printers' Ink—the leading journal on publicity of all kinds—has the following to say: "There are thousands of printers in this country, good, indifferent, and a lot of bad ones. There isn't one really good printer in five hundred. Intelligent advertisers are willing to pay for good printing, no matter where it comes from."

Printers' Ink knows what it is talking about. Poor printing is a bad investment—it's worse than a blank. A business man's stationery or booklet is like a traveling man—if it's neat, well-dressed and to the point, the first impression is good and your chances of doing business on the strength of it are good.

We realize this. We keep abreast of the times. We know what good printing is and produce it. We are pretty careful not to let a bum job get out our presses. No press in the country can better our printing and we want you to know it.

GOOD SCHOOL REPORTS

Made By Pupils in the Seventh Grade at High School

A number of pupils in the Seventh Grade in the High School, taught by Miss Hattie Broseers, had excellent reports upon the closing of the session.

The highest average, 93%, was made by Douglas Newell, while Otto Starrett and Chanslor Parker had the records of not having been absent or tardy during the entire term.

Miss Sarah Oldham was present every school day.

Douglas Newell, Katie Porter, Lena Dunbar, Wilson Porter, Edith Pierce, Stanley Lowery and James Roden had no tardy marks against them in their reports.

On the Roll of Honor all year were the names of Nannie Thompson, Sophia Schatzmann, Douglas Newell, Otto Starrett.

SOCIAL EVENTS

The spacious parlors and dining rooms of the Hill House have in their time been the scene of many a noted gathering, but the dance given last night by Master Robert Boyd Lovel, the little grandson of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Lovel, was something out of ordinary.

Two hundred children, whose ages ranged from 6 to 14 years, besides another hundred of more mature years, made up the list of guests present.

It was a beautiful sight to behold the little fairies flitting through the figures of the dance to the music of Walker's Orchestra.

Flowers were in evidence everywhere, but especially so in the dining-room, where four large tables occupied the floor. Favors of an unique and pretty design were given and ices and cakes served.

It was nearly 11 o'clock when the happy but tired children departed for their homes.

A most elaborate function was last afternoon's reception by Mrs. P. P. Parker and Mrs. Ellen Piper at their handsome home in East Second street.

The charming hostesses were assisted in receiving by Mrs. J. Edward Parker, Mrs. John T. Parker, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Wells and Mrs. Shanklin. The dining-room was decorated in green and white, and refreshments were served in green and white, with a similar spray for each guest.

Mrs. Caldwell, Mrs. Fitzgerald and Miss Cox presided in the dining-room.

Frappe was served in the hall by Mrs. Hopper and Mrs. Charles Ball.

A gay company of handsomely gowned ladies filled the beautiful rooms from 4 to 7, the reception hours. The home was most artistically decorated in green and white, the center of the table being elaborately banked with white floral decorations and ferns surrounded by a glittering circle of crystal candlesticks supporting burning tapers which were further displayed in the service of ices.

A setting more beautiful cannot be imagined. The sweet strains of music added to the charms of the afternoon.

Have you tried a "Daisy" Ham? If not why not? M. C. RUSSELL CO.

Mrs. J. E. Trelkeld last evening entertained the Epworth League of the First M. E. Church, South.

The Sun Brothers' mammoth new Railroad Shows, Museum of Wonders, Trained Animal Exposition is billed to exhibit at Maysville on Monday, June 20th. Grand free street parade at 11 a. m. day of show. Two performances, 2 and 8 p. m.

The Government summary of the crop conditions for the past week states that wheat and corn suffered in many sections from too much rain and a lack of sunshine. Wheat harvest is on in the South. Cotton has shown improvement, and tobacco looks fairly well.

The music pupils of Miss Lida Berry will have a recital tomorrow evening at her home in West Second street.

Four young boys, one of whom was said to be from Maysville, were given fifteen minutes to get out of Huntington Tuesday by the city officers. They were arrested on a charge of riding trains.

A strike of all the Union miners employed by the Ashland Mining and Coal Company at Ashland is imminent and the call of a strike is a matter that is being momentarily expected from headquarters.

HERETOFORE, six teachers have been employed in the Colored Schools of the city at an annual expense for salaries alone of $2,500—a Principal at $750 and five Assistants at $350 each;—and the action of the Board of Education in lopping off two of these teachers—thus saving $700 a year—is justified by the fact that the attendance on these schools has fallen to little more than one hundred. When the colored people take more interest in their schools; when they show a disposition to contribute a small part toward educating their children by the payment of the levy of $1.50 made each year against every male adult, and thus prevent the rapidly-growing overdraft of their School Fund—which is today $2,867.83; and when they send their children to school instead of permitting them to run the streets in idleness and ignorance, then they will find that the members of the Board of Education will give them all the teachers that may be required.

THE Lexington Leader says Lewis McQuown is going to write himself a book. The esteemed Morning Democrat threatens that it is to be a true history of the Goebel assassination, in which Mr. McQuown proposes to reach up and pull the lever and turn on all the light at once. The illumination with which Mr. McQuown proposes to flood the situation, says The Democrat, will make all other accounts of the tragedy look like sulphur matches blinking in a darkened cellar and show beyond the peradventure of a doubt that POWERS fired the fatal shot; that HOWARD fired the fatal shot; that YOUTSEY fired the fatal shot; that all used the same weapon and all fired at the same time.

McQuown knows. He has had access to JACK CHINN and YOUTSEY and the notorious CULTON and GOLDEN, and the facile Mr. NOAKS. CHINN was there and saw the whole thing. NOAKS wasn't, but he knew. CULTON wasn't, but he knew, and GOLDEN wasn't, but when the reward fund began to dance in tantalizing glee before the eyes of the immortal trio they all knew as much as CHINN, and they told it well.

Mr. McQuown's book will, therefore, be heralded with delight that will almost reach the dignity of jubilee, and the public will doubtless hold its breath in horror at the thought of what might befall should something happen to McQuown before he takes his pen in hand.

Meanwhile it would be well for the State Court to suspend judgment till McQuown has writ; and we would furthermore request that whatever of the $100,000 blood money is left after the "patriots" of the prosecution shall have gotten theirs be turned over to the author of the work and that the state set aside an appropriation for a monument to perpetuate his fame when death shall have clouded his eyes in sleep.

"Let there be light."

EXTENSIVE IMPROVEMENTS

The Hall Plow Works Undergoing a Complete Overhauling

The James H. Hall Plow Works are just now overhauling their immense plant preparatory to starting up.

Among other improvements they are installing a new boiler containing 16 flues, 6 inches in diameter, with an attachment of one of Williams' automatic feed water regulators—it skims the water and prevents impurities entering the boiler.

The engine is supplied with a steam evaporator, preventing water or moisture from entering the cylinder.

Another new and improved device is a bolt cutter.

Everything will be up-to-date and of the best, regardless of the cost.

This is a firm and institution of which Maysville is exceedingly proud of having in her midst.

The Ohio Valley Pulley Works is running full time and crowded with orders. How this city would thrive if she had about ten more such beehives of industry.

Dr. L. Brand, Andrew Curtis and Millard Williams are themselves a pretty good-looking trio this morning. Ask 'em, or either of 'em.

Gage 23.0 and falling.

The Queen City will be down tomorrow night.

The Ironsides has arrived at Pittsburgh with empties.

The Winnifredo passed down with a big tow of Kanawha coal.

The Bonanza looked after the Pomeroy business here last night.

Coal is being accumulated at Pittsburgh for a big run when the June rise comes.

The Snagboat Woodruff is removing some sunken barges in the Pittsburgh harbor.

The Keystone State will be up tonight for Pittsburgh. She passed down last night with a fine list of passengers.

A Memphis photographer followed the big towboat Sprague down the river a hundred miles to secure a picture of the steamer with the largest tow of coal ever floated down the Mississippi. The photograph will be exhibited at the World's Fair.

The present stage of the water and temperature have greatly increased passenger traffic on the packets. The river is at its best right now, and the trip is one of pleasure. The scenery along the entire route of the Ohio is not exceeded anywhere in the world. Steamboat operators and owners have every reason to believe that there will be water for at least a month for boats to go as far up as Pittsburgh. The lower river is expected to hold water until August.

HEALTHY MOTHERS.

Mothers should always keep in good bodily health. They owe it to their children. Yet it is no unusual sight to see a mother, with babe in arms, coughing violently and exhibiting all the symptoms of a consumptive tendency. And why should this dangerous condition exist, dangerous alike to mother and child, when Dr. Boachie's German Syrup would put a stop to it once? No mother should be without this old and tried remedy in the house—for its timely use will promptly cure any lung, throat or bronchial trouble in herself or her children. The worst cough or cold can be speedily cured by German Syrup; so can hoarseness and congestion of the bronchial tubes. It makes expectoration easy, and gives instant relief and refreshing rest to the cough-racked consumptive. New trial bottles, 25c; large size, 75c. For sale by Henry W. Rye, Postoffice Druggist.

SUIT FOR DAMAGES

Decision of Appellate Court on a Case From Mason County

In affirming the suit of Dorsey's Administrator v. the L. and N. Railroad Company, from this county, the Court of Appeals, through Judge Hobson, handed down the following opinion—

Railroads—Damages—Where the evidence shows that shortly before the death of appellant, intestate, he said to another, "I am drunk this morning, and I don't care what I do, and I would as soon be dead as alive," and then going in the direction of a railroad, where a train going twenty-five or thirty miles an hour soon passed, was found soon thereafter lying against a fence near the track unconscious and badly injured in the head and shoulder, there can be no recovery against the railroad company for damages for his death.

There is nothing in the record to show that he was in such position as to be seen by those in charge of the train. He was evidently drunk and perhaps asleep when the train struck him. A peremptory instruction to find for the defendant was proper.

Second—Same—Pleading.—In an action against a railroad company for damages the Court properly refused to permit the plaintiff to file an amended petition which charged that the company was without title to the right of way. Whether it had title or not, it had possession, and one was no less a trespasser upon its track because it had taken possession of the ground wrongfully.

A. D. Cole was the attorney for appellant; W. H. Wadsworth and Benjamin D. Warfield for appellee.

CHAMPION SNAKE NARRATIVE

Fleming County Woman Finds a Ten-Footer in Her Room

The wife of 'Squire' George T. Beckett of near Mt. Carmel had a thrilling experience with a large blacksnake in her room one night last week.

'Squire' Beckett is a brother of Mr. James S. Beckett of this city and lives at the Beckett home place, considered one of the most beautiful in Fleming county.

The 'Squire' is a traveling salesman and is absent from home much of his time.

One night last week Mrs. Beckett was awakened by an unusual sound and fearing that something was amiss in her room she arose to light the lamp. As she put her feet to the floor she was surprised at the cold, clammy feeling there seemed to be in the carpet. She hastened to strike a match, and—horror! What was her surprise to behold at her bedside a large blacksnake! In her fright she dropped the match, so there she was in a dark room with a large snake between her and the match-box that was on the stand by the bed. Still she did not lose her nerve like most women in her circumstances would have done, but went to the other room, lit a lamp and returned.

By this time, no doubt, Mr. Snake was beginning to realize that he was in danger, as he started to beat a hasty retreat to the other side of the room and was fast disappearing through a hole near the fireplace. This is where Mrs. Beckett showed her remarkable nerve. She firmly grabbed him by the tail and held him until her little daughter, Mildred, went upstairs and awakened her brother, Mr. Josa Beckett. Of course Josa lost no time getting down, and finding the ax he soon sent Mr. Snake into eternity to answer to the charge of trespassing on other people's property.

After everything was over and he was laid out he measured just 10 feet 8 inches. Next.

Circus Billposters Play Hob With Some of the Trolleys

Yesterday noon billposters were using the Street Railway's elevated wagon for the purpose of placing streamers on the wires advertising Sun's Brothers' Circus.

The head engineer elevated the ladder of the wagon too high to pass under the cross wires that line the streets, and in rounding the corner at Bridge and Third streets, the platform of the wagon was caught by a wire and torn from its position and at the same time dragging the wire down in such a manner as to catch the second wagon following behind under its top-gallant and heave it on its beam end.

There was no particular damage done, but considerable excitement among the occupants of the wagon who were hastily precipitated to the ground.

REDMEN'S POWWOW

Get Ready to Attend the Event and Have a Good Time

With flags flying, bunting waving and bands playing the Redmen's Powwow and Summer Carnival will be the event of 1904, beginning Monday, June 13th, and continuing the entire week.

The Redmen have worked hard to make this affair the biggest, best, greatest and grandest happening Maysville has ever had, and from all accounts their efforts will be rewarded, for on every side big preparations are being made to attend.

The Robinson Amusement Company, which furnishes all attractions, will have fifteen high class shows that will please everyone, while the six big free attractions are the best ever seen at any Carnival. Three bands of music will enliven the occasion.

The parades promise to eclipse all former parades ever given in Maysville, as the Redmen's parade on Tuesday will have over 1,000 Indians in war paint and feathers in line.

Be sure and come. You cannot afford to stay away as there will be too many good things to miss.
